Summer Position Description: Guest Services Specialist
University Student Housing
Texas Tech University

General Description
University Student Housing at Texas Tech University promotes each student’s learning experience by creating safe, supporting living environments for academic and personal success. University Student Housing is committed to the total development of the resident within an inclusive community through student government, programming, residence hall standards, and supportive learning environments in the residence halls.

The Guest Services Specialist (GSS) is a student who is employed by University Student Housing to assist in the daily management and operation of a Residence Hall/Complex during the summer conference season. As a member of the Residence Life staff, the GSS works with Residence Life Coordinators, Graduate Hall Coordinators/Graduate Assistants, Interns for University Student Housing, Hall Secretaries, the Manager for Conference Services and the Assistant Directors of Residence Life in creating a positive environment for all campus guests. Many times the GSS is the first contact individuals experience in the residence halls and at Texas Tech University.

Essential Functions
The essential functions or fundamental job responsibilities for the this position include the ability to: assist in the preparation of materials for conference participants; check in and check out conference participants; communicate effectively with students, staff, and visitors; adapt to changes in schedules as needed by the clients or supervisor(s); utilize the conference software package ConferenceProgrammer; attend weekly scheduled meetings in addition to any emergency, team and individual meetings; prepare written memorandums, documents and complete forms; read reports, gather and compile information and prepare reports; direct and respond to fire alarms and major emergencies; perform cash transactions; issue keys and equipment; monitor security of residence hall facilities; ascend and descend multiple flights of stairs; operate a hand held radio; and other duties as assigned.

The GSS is primarily involved in providing customer and receptionist services to visiting guests, parents and other University officials. The GSS provides leadership in maintaining the safety of the guests as well as the security of the residence hall facilities. The GSS also works on various administrative assignments outlined by Hall Secretaries, Residence Life Coordinators, Graduate Hall Coordinators/Graduate Assistants, the Manager for Conference Services and the Assistant Directors of Residence Life designed to assist in the overall management of the residence hall.

The Guest Services Specialist work schedule may cover a 24 hour period. Specific schedules within this time period are designated by the supervisor and will be published on the WhenToWork online scheduling module. Hours will vary with a 20 hour maximum number of hours worked per week during the summer. Weekly work will include desk coverage at conference residence halls, weekly meetings, Housekeeping assistance, building preparation, and other summer operational tasks. The conference season has many busy periods and a few slower time frames. Because of the fluctuation of business, the GSS work schedule can vary from week to week.

Responsibilities
The GSS reports directly to the Residence Life Coordinator, Graduate Hall Coordinator/Graduate Assistant, Interns for University Student Housing, and indirectly to the Manager for Conference Services and the Assistant Directors of Residence Life.
